

2020 PERU

Building Families Homes

In Peru we partner with the Fuller Centre for Housing to assist with building earthquake resistant brick homes for families who are currently living in structures made of reed panels which are flimsy and lack privacy. Join us just for the build week or add on an optional week or two to visit the Amazon or historic Cusco to visit Machu Picchu with option to walk the Inca Trail.

Who is Volunteer Build?

Volunteer Build has been operating 12 years and partners with local communities to give them what they need and want to build better futures for their people. Teams are led by a combination of Volunteer Build staff and local hosts and building foremen.

No prior building experience is required before trips which are suitable for individual travellers, couples, families (well behaved children from 8 years welcome) and mature travellers up to 79 years. Volunteer Build's comprehensive travel insurance is compulsory on our builds.

Joining one of our Volunteer Build teams is as easy as 1 – 2 – 3

1. Choose your trip
2. Register at www.volunteerbuild.com
3. Once accepted, we'll send you everything you need to know to get ready including information on travel documentation, vaccinations, travel insurance, building site safety, things to bring, great fundraising ideas and more.

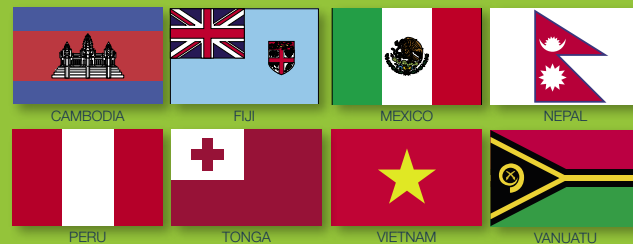

International Service Trips for Schools, Businesses and Special Interest Groups

Volunteer Build also provides private fully escorted turnkey trips for schools, business and special interest groups addressing the issues around global poverty, team building & personal leadership skills development, cross cultural awareness and interaction, with clear deliverables at the end of each project. All transport, accommodation, airfares, travel insurance, emergency and RAMS planning is provided as well as comprehensive pre trip briefings covering what to bring, building site safety, vaccination requirements, managing expectations, culture shock etc. Contact us today to see how we can assist your group with an unforgettable experience!

2018 House Building Mexico Trip

I wanted to have an adventure and to make a meaningful change to the lives of some people less fortunate than myself. Over the course of three days we built a house for a family of 7, who before were living in a one room make-shift shack. Seeing the smiles and tears of joy on the family member's faces when we handed over the keys was a truly humbling moment. I couldn't recommend this experience more highly!

2020 VANUATU

Building Homes & Lives

In Vanuatu we will build a teachers house for the V2 Life School, located just outside of Port Vila. The school has some classrooms but doesn't have housing for local teachers – without teachers the students can't learn, hence the need for teacher housing.

2021 CAMBODIA & VIETNAM

Building Families Homes

In Cambodia we join with Tabitha Foundation to build 6 homes and fund water wells for families that can't afford them. Tabitha supports families in their journey to a better life, including food and income security, safe water, housing and education for the children.

Join the team for just the build (7 January to 15 January 2021) or in Vietnam for some R & R the week before. The choice is yours!
